MISSING SHIPS STIR SEA HUNT

Mysterious Disappearance of Vessels Off Atlantic Coast

Washington—Are pirates operating off the Atlantic Coast.

The crew of an American ship is missing and what seems to be conclusive evidence has been obtained that they were made prisoners on another vessel and taken away to parts unknown, if they were not murdered. A second American ship is long overdue and two other American ships are unaccounted for under circumstances raising suspicion of a similar fate.

All methods of investigation are being pursued.

The Department of Justice has assigned some of its best secret service agents to the case for the Government is working on the theory that all these mysterious incidents are inter-related.

Several months ago the five-masted schooner Carol Deering of Portland, Me., was found abandoned off Diamond Shoals, N. C., with all sails set and her officers and crew missing. The Deering went ashore near Diamond Shoals lightship and when the men of the nearby life saving station went aboard they found evidence indicating that she had been abandoned in a hurry for no conceivable reason for the vessel was in good shape with plenty of food.

A little later a bottle came ashore near where the ship was found and in it was a note purporting to have been written by the mate of the schooner, which reads as follows:

"An oil burner tanker or submarine has boarded us and placed our crew in irons. Get word to headquarters of company at once."

The captain and crew of the Deering numbered twelve and not a trace of them has been discovered.

The steel steamer Hewitt, owned by the Union Sulphur Company of New York, is also missing. She sailed from Sabine, Texas, several months ago with a cargo of sulphur for Boston and Portland. The Government authorities have been unable to get any trace of her.

Not a boat or a spar from her has come ashore or been picked up, and not a body of any member of her crew has been found.

At the Department of Commerce the statement was made today that two other American vessels had disappeared under circumstances that led them to believe that they had foundered, and they suspected that the ships had been the victims of pirates, perhaps soviet sympathizers.

GAS RATES ARE INCREASED

Many Northern California Districts Affected by Decision

San Francisco—Gas rates for San Francisco and Northern California districts were increased 2 cents a thousand cubic feet in a decision by the State Railroad Commission, made public this week.

The new rate, which becomes effective August 1, will be $1.07 a thousand cubic feeet. The present rate is $1.05.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which utility the decision affects, was granted a rate of $1.13 last March, but the rate was held inoperative by the commission pending further investigation into the cost of crude oil.

An important feature of the commission's decision was the determination that gas rates for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company must be based on the price of crude oil and on a revision of the tax estimate of the company.

RAILROADS OFFER TERMS

Will Cut Rates If Fruit Men Will Abandon Water Plan.

Los Angeles—Reductions of 22 cents a hundred pounds on transcontinental freight rates on oranges and 16½ cents on lemons by November 1 were promised by three railroads here if citrus fruit shippers would abandon plans for further development of water transportation facilities.

The offer would reduce the rate a hundred pounds on oranges from $1.92 to $1.70, and on lemons from $1.66½ to $1.50.

The proposal was made by G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific; W. G. Barnwell, assistant freight manager of the Santa Fe, and A. S. Edmonds, general traffic manager of the Salt Lake, at a conference with members of the California Citrus League, which also was attended by representatives of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange and by independent shippers.

GREEKS MISTREAT AMERICAN CITIZENS

Forced Into Military Service Against Protest

Smyrna—American citizens are being impressed into the Greek army by agents of the Athens government, and George Horton, United States consul-general here, has made a vigorous protest to Governor-General Steriades against the continuance of the practice.

For many months past Americans, even men who served in the army in France, have been taken forcibly from their homes, or from vessels arriving from the United States, and compelled to join the Greek forces.

In many instances American citizens have been stripped of their clothing and their passports and other papers have been confiscated. When they have protested, it is charged that they have been handcuffed, thrown into jails and mistreated.

Consul-General Horton declares this action by the Greek authorities is in flagrant violation of existing agreements between the United States and Greece.

THE NEW VICTORY HIGHWAY

Work of Designating Road Across Continent Begins.

San Francisco—The cornerstone of a national monument to those who fought and gave their lives in the World War was laid this week when a California State Automobile Association motor truck left the City Hall to sign a new transcontinental route to be known as the Victory highway.

In addition to its sentimental value, the Victory highway means much to Upper California. That section of the State, due to the fact that there is no existing well-marked transcontinental highway, is receiving only 10 per cent of the motor tourist coming to California. According to Milton H. Esberg, chairman of the transcontinental highways committee of the state association, 90 per cent of this tourist travel is now diverted at Ely, Nev., to Southern California.

AIRPLANES FOR FOREST PATROL

Visalia—Airplanes of the forest patrol have arrived in Visalia and two of the machines will be stationed here permanently. Actual forest patrol work is expected to begin this week. Daily flight of the aviators will not exceed 400 miles. The station will have a capacity of 600-mile transmission and a telephone capable of use for 300 miles.

TRAGIC WAR MYSTERY

Mental Enigma of "Man Nobody Knows" Baffles Authorities.

Sacramento—Mourned for dead by relatives and friends, "The Man Nobody Knows" sits in his little room in Sacramento and strives vainly to draw aside the curtain that veils his identity and his past.

Since a night in 1918, when he was found by stretcher bearers in No Man's Land, unconscious and dangerously wounded and his identification tag missing, his name and former life have been blotted out. The only mark of identification on him was a sergeant's chevron on his sleeve.

Surgeons in the various hospitals in France and the army hospitals in the United States, including the Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco, have tried, by every method known to medical science, to restore the memory of "The Man Nobody Knows," but without avail. His present life begins in the hospital in which he was restored to consciousness. Prior to that all is a blank.

KANSAS ADOPTS CONSOLIDATION BIG

GARDEN CITY, Kan., June 22—What is described as one of the most elaborate and complete consolidated school plants in America has just been dedicated at Holcomb, seven miles west of Garden City on the Western Kansas prairie. The plant cost $225,000.

Seven school districts joined to construct the single plant where the pupils may have the advantages of a city school, including manual training, domestic science and scientific training of several varities. Six one-room schools of the old type and a three-room school in Holcomb were abandoned in favor of the consolidated project.

The pupils are transported to the school by motor buses driven by teachers who receive $20 a month for the extra work. The buses have a capacity of thirty to forty pupils each.

The Holcomb consolidated school district has an area of 124.5 square miles. The school population at present is 375. The new plant has a capacity of 650 grade and high school pupils.

The consolidated school group consists of seven buildings in all, with others to be added later, a first-class farm for instruction in practical agriculture, and a large athletic field. In addition to the main high school building and a grade school building, there is a large garage for housing the motor buses, a cottage for the superintendent, a faculty home, cottage for the agricultural instructor and farm superintendent, and a cottage for the janitor.

MR. R. H. HYDE, FRUIT PACKER, HOME FROM EASTERN BUSINESS TRIP

Business Conditions Better in California Than Any Manufacturing Section in East

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyde returned Saturday from their business and pleasure trip East. Mrs. Hyde visited relatives at Galva, Ill., while Mr. Hyde went on to the East seaboard to call on the firm's old patrons and to make new ones.

On their way east they visited Denver and St. Louis. Mr. Hyde called on the trade at Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, and spent a week at New York. He then went to Philadelphia, Atlantic City, and Boston, spending five weeks at this village as headquarters while visiting relatives and customers as far east as Bangor. He visited the noted "Wayside Inn" which was in early times the property of his ancestors, the Howe family, on his father's side. Here in this famous hostelry are the rooms of Washington, Lafyette and Longfellow.

On his return trip he stopped at Niagara Falls and visited the Henry Ford plant at Detroit. From Chicago he and Mrs. Hyde went to Canada thru the big wheat belt of North Dakota where they experienced a real thunder storm and Nor'wester shower. Thru the Canadian Rockies they were delighted with the wonderful scenery stopping at Banff and Lake Louise.

At Vancouver they took steamer to Seattle. Coming to Portland they took a side trip to Dallas, Ore., to visit relatives before the last jump home.

Mr. Hyde found conditions thru the middle states fair tho somewhat slack while at nearly all manufacturing centers except Detroit business is practically at a standstill. Whereever agricultural interests are uppermost business seems to be readjusting itself to the new conditions more readily. Of all sections he visited the coast states are most active and California has far the best of the bargain. There is apparently more work being done and less idle labor in our own state than in most of those visited.

After all their trip and sightseeing, "home is the best place of all" and they are back to enjoy it.

NEW PRINCIPAL FOR CAMPBELL ELECTED

The Campbell Union Grammar School trustees have elected Mr. Ernest J. Cuthbertson as supervising principal of the schools for the coming year and our board are to be congratulated on their ability to secure the sevices of such a man as he comes well recommended.

Mr. Cuthbertson has just completed a successful term as supervising principal of the Livermore Grammar school and he comes very highly recommended by business men, school trustees, and Miss McNaught of Sacramento.

The following is an excerpt from a school board member:

"He is an excellent teacher, well liked by parents and popular with the children particularly with the boys, with whom he establishes a comradeship which is very effective in keeping them interested.

"He proved an efficient teacher graduating his entire class and carries the hearty recommendation of the board."

Mr. Cuthbertson has already been in Campbell looking for a house for his family, wife and four children.

Trustees' Meeting Called by Miss Howe

June 13, 1921.

By virtue of the power conferred upon me by section 1566 of the School Law of California I hereby call a Trustees' meeting for Tuesday, June 28th in the Conference room adjoining the city Superintendent's office at the San Jose high school building.

I am calling this meeting so early for two reasons:—First, that we may get some light on recent school legislation, which, considering the many inquiries constantly being made, is needed, and second to have it before the rush of the apricot harvest.

Senator Jones will speak in the morning and explain the changes made in the law. State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hon. Will C. Wood, will speak in the afternoon on the application of these laws. Come prepared to question freely.

Please publish the time and place of meetings as I wish not only the trustees but all interested to be present and take part. One thing that I want to have fully discussed is S. B. 656 by which elementary districts must be placed in high school districts.

Hoping to see your entire board and many others from your district, I am

Yours most cordially,
Agnes E. Howe

CAMPBELL CANNERIES WILL SOON PACK

Campbell canneries will operate this season as before. Numerous reports have been circulated about town that this or that plant would not run. A Press representative has made inquiries at headquarters of each of our three canneries and the reply was the same. The season will probably begin about the eleventh of July when it is estimated that the first apricots will be ready. A number of plants in other parts of the state will not run this season and Campbell fruit workers may congratulate themselves on local conditions which make it possible for our enterprising canners to pack.

With fruit work none to plentiful and workers too many it behooves the workers who are on the job to make the most of their opportunity and demonstrate their efficiency.

The Orchard City Garage has leased the corner opposite on Dillon avenue and will establish a free auto camp ground for the season. This is the first year Campbell has had such a convenience for the motoring public and Messrs. Grim and Ireland are to be congratulated for their enterprising public spirit. The lot will be cleared and appropriate signs erected for the notice of autoists.

Mr. Ralph A. Nodden has been elected to the high school faculty to teach farm mechanics and some of the sciences. Mr. Nodden is not a stranger having lived for several years south of town. Mrs. Nodden nee Pernilla Pelson is a graduate of Campbell school.

CAMPBELL HAS AGA[illegible] field of activity and usefulness. By the ac[illegible] ounty Board of Supervisors, Monday, Meridian [illegible] district was annexed to Campbell Union High School. This was brought about by a petition of resident parents of Meridian, petitioning the Board for such privilege. Campbell has been educating high school students from Meridian for some years without cost to that district, and the parents have become convinced of the efficiency of the school and its high moral influence thruout the community. Several other adjoining districts have been circulating petitions asking for the same privilege, but awaiting the action of the Board on this case. It is quite probable that Moreland will be the next to come into the family. With the present and prospective additions, Campbell will boast one of the wealthiest union districts in the State. There is an overwhelming sentiment toward consolidation in school efficiency as well as in industrial efficiency, and parents realizing the wonderful possibilities of consolidation, and knowing the moral calibre of our town and schools, are anxious to join with us. Let them come in, the benefit will be mutual.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS HAS SIGNED a bill making it unlawful for any dog to run at large without a collar bearing the name and address of its owner, and for any dog to be allowed to run loose on a farm where stock and domestic fowls are kept.

This is a big stride toward the elimination of worthless curs that infest practically every part of the State. Our own town has a number of dogs with more or less of a nomadic life and it is doubtful if the owners will invest in a collar and name plate. In such cases the animal should be spirited to the happy hunting grounds, and thereby make the village more attractive.

THE PAGEANT NOW AN INSTITUTION

The Los Gatos Pageant has become an institution—a fixed annual event that has come to stay. Each succeeding year the spectacle has grown more pretentious in all its aspects. Ever-growing casts, with the performers assuming professional proficiency in the portrayal of exacting roles, an added tinge of splendor to gorgeous costuming and a wealth of scenic display, lighting effects so perfect as to produce a consummate realism, with an open-air amphitheater second to none in its natural settings, which lend verisimilitude alike to the wildest jungle or desert panorama and to the sophisticated splendor of oriental or modern palace—these combined elements have given the Pageant a permanent tenure and made it a social and artistic success. Both performer and spectator eagerly look forward to its recurrence and proudly and contentedly assume their characters.

This year's offering is an adaptation from the Classics of a romantic and historic spectacle of Ancient China, written and produced by Wilbur Hall, the noted author. No particular dynasty is mentioned, but the ancient scripts have been carefully followed for detail and the best Chinese authorities have been consulted for accurate scenic display and correct costuming. The story readily lends itself to a lavish costume display and a wide range of stage settings, from the beggar's hovel in the crowded poor district to the King's palace and the ornate Temples of Buddha. Incidents in the story make a succession of wonderful spectacles—the elaborate funeral cortage of the departed King, the banishment of the child Heir Apparent, the coronation of the Pretender to the Throne, life in the beggar world of Ancient China, a realistic battle scene, culminating in the miraculous reappearance of the Heir Apparent, who leads his subjects to victory in the face of almost certain defeat by Tartar barbarians, the reunion with the Queen Mother, and the final Apotheosis.

A feature of the production is the incidental music, which has been specially written for the occasion by Mr. George Edwards, of the Players Theater and, the Bohemian Club of San Francisco. The weird chants will be sung by choral societies of Los Gatos and Saratoga, composed of hundreds of trained singers, which will add the necessary touch or realism, heightened by bizarre costumes and wonderful scenery. The instrumental incidentel music is in the hands of Prof. J. Kalas and has also been specially procured for the Pageant.

The principal characters of the spectacle are all in the hands of seasoned performers, carefully chosen by Director Wilbur Hall, for their special qualifications in the respective roles. Each artist has had many public appearances and can be relied on to present a finished performance.

The demand for seats has been so great that the management has been compelled to increase the seating capacity.. There will be comfortable seating space for 5,000 spectators. The researved section contains 1,000 seats and these have all been placed on sale to general public. They are rapidly being taken up and the requests come in so steadily that the entire section will be sold out long before the performances on June 24 and 25.

You will, if you are fortunate, witness the production of Keang Foo the Exile in a blaze of glory —truly a blaze, due to the skillful efforts of the large corps of experts who have charge of the lighting system. Lights of every graduation of color have been cunningly placed in every part of the enormous open-air stage, from the lowest level to the highest hill, all operating from the great switchboard under the watchful eye of the director. The scenes appear and disappear like magic at the hands of these light wizards. Far up in the hills a soft radiance reveals the beautiful temple gate, the inner shrine of the Buddha, and descending the steps the Queen Mother, in her robes of state, her progress marked by the path of colorful light, all else subdued, until she reaches the center of the ceremonial group, when the whole scene is revealed by the powerful battery of seachlights, as brilliant as the noonday sun. Then again the scene slowly vanishes, leaving only the principal character to register the progress of the story, picked out by a narrow pencil of light. Like a genii of the lamp, the scenes unfold a veritable Arabian Nights in mystery and beauty. If the Pageant had no other attraction, the lighting effects alone would make it a finished production.

The second episode in "Keang Foo, the Exile," is a vivid and colorful reproduction of the ancient Chinese beggar world, with all the customs and traditions of that wonderful cult represented with startling faithfulness of detail. Large troups of acrobats and jugglers, especially secured by the Pageant, will perform feats of daring, skill, and mystery before the sumptuous court of a visiting prince. The great chorus will chant the wild and beautiful folk songs in ancient and almost forgotten themes. The beggar maid Wan Kee, a role assumed by Mrs. Delmar W. Call, a noted mezzo-soprano concert singer, who is well known in California by her many public appearances, will sing, the solo numbers. The second episode of the Pageant contains so many numbers of real worth and amusement that an entire performance could be made of it alone.

Chester Taft of San Luis Obispo was a house guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Whitney this week returning home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore are expected to arrive next week from Erie, Kansas, for a visit with their son, J. A. Moore, and wife. They will visit other points of interest before returning home.

Before July 10

In a little while the cannery whistles will begin to punctuate the Campbell days. Soon a stream of workers will be surging along "main street," and presently the hearts of many will be gladdened by those much-desired pay checks.

All this pleasant excitement will announce the rolling round of the year to another fruit season, and, it is hoped, the breaking of the financial "dry spell." This last slack season has seemed a little longer, duller, slacker, than any before; and some lessons have been learned, which, if not too soon forgotten, ought to do us all good.

For one thing we have acquired more respect for those dollars. Dollars were so little and so plentiful a year ago, but since then they have grown comparatively big and very scarce. Every one that we saved has earned us, in increased purchasing power, at least twenty percent. A savings account was, during the last twelve months, a gilt-edge investment indeed.

For this and other reasons, sayings accounts are gaining in popularity. Many new ones are going to be opened with the beginning of this fruit season. Remember that July 1 marks the commencement of a new quarter, and that, as a special encouragement, our bank will allow interest from July 1 on any savings deposits made by July 10. Start with the first pay check.

Brick Cheese, from Wisconsin, was one of the items mentioned last week. Being from the great cheese state, it's the genuine eastern sort; and that means a flavor a bit sharp, which some folks like very much. For cooking, especially, it is all to the good, since it melts so easily, and a very little will do. The pound, 35c.

Incidentally, the summer work is coming on, with its customary rush. Our delivery service in town will run much smoother, from now on, if orders are placed early. We don't like to say no to a late call for delivery, for that makes us seem unwilling to accommodate; but if the load is held back at the last minute, those who did order early are apt to be displeased—hard workers want meals on time. THE CRY OF A FELLOW TOWNSMAN

A customer, upon receiving a request to send check to cover his account, sent the following letter:

For the following reasons I am unable to send you a check, for I have been held up, held down, sand-bagged, walked on, flattened out and squeezed,—

First by the U. S. Government fo the Federal War Tax, Profit Tax, Liberty Loan Tax, Thrift Stamps, Capital Stock Tax, Merchants License and Auto Tax.

By every Society and Organization that the inventive mind of man can invent to extract what I may or may not possess.

I have been solicited by the society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., The Woman's Relief, the Navy League, the Red Cross, the Black Cross, the Double Cross, the Children's Home, the Dorcas Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Boy Scouts, the Jewish Relief, the Belgian Relief, and every hospital in town.

Then on top of all came the Associated Charities and Salvation Army.

The government has governed my business so that I don't know who owns it.

I am inspected, suspected, examined, and re-examined, informed, required, and commanded, so I don't know who I am, where I am, or why I am here. All I know is: I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race.

And because I won't sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow, or steal money to give away, I have been cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked about, lied to, lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined.

And the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what in hell is coming next.
